The petitioner filed this writ petition apprehending that he may be arrested in connection with FIR No.289 of 2004 of P.S. Armoor. He states that he submitted a complaint before the first respondent alleging certain criminal acts against the persons named therein and it was registered as Crime No.303 of 2003. The petitioner filed W.P.No.18590 of 2004 before this Court seeking a direction to the respondents to take further steps in Crime No.303 of 2003. The petitioner alleges that bearing grudge on account of his approaching this Court, the first respondent is trying to implicate him in an un-related incident, which gave rise to F.I.R.No.289 of 2004.

On behalf of the respondents, a counter-affidavit is filed denying the allegation of the petitioner. It is stated that the petitioner had been arrested on 18.01.2004 in relation to the said F.I.R. and had been released.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Home.

The petitioner approached this Court with an apprehension that he may be arrested. Thereafter, he was arrested and was released on bail. Now the matter is pending in the criminal Court concerned. No relief, as such, can be granted to the petitioner, in this writ petition.

Hence, the writ petition is dismissed. There shall be no order as to costs.
